

An increase in the value of Medicare covered services causes an increase in the value of Medicare payments to the supplier across all states and diagnosis related groups

